

Klipsch

Room Groove

Development: Engineering

By identifying key technical risks and providing rich conceptual-engineering deliverables, Essential actively advised Klipsch in directing their final development efforts overseas.

As a support team to the Klipsch engineering staff, Essential provided technical inputs to effectively minimize time to market and optimize final production quality.

